§7-401. Contents

The regulations shall provide for:

* * *

(v) The establishment within the civil service system of a class of employees to be designated as “Public Safety Enforcement Officers.” The duties of such employees shall include providing support to the Police Department to regulate the flow of traffic and support special events; providing such other assistance as uniformed police officers may require to enforce quality of life crimes; enforcing municipal code violations relating to the quality of life in the City’s neighborhoods; and carrying out such other duties as the appointing authority may determine or as Council may from time to time require by ordinance. None of the duties of a Public Safety Enforcement

Officer shall involve the carrying of firearms or the power of arrest. The first class of Public Safety Enforcement Officers shall be appointed no later than six months after the adoption by the voters of the amendment adding this section to the Charter. Unless otherwise authorized by Council by ordinance, the Mayor shall determine the number of Public Safety Enforcement Officers to be employed, provided that in the event that vacancies cause the total number of employees to fall below this specified level, such vacancies shall be filled no less than three months after they first occur.

~~(v)~~ (w) Such other matters as may be proper and necessary.
