

APPLICATION TO SERVE ON THE PHILADELPHIA COMMISSION ON PARKS AND RECREATION

PART I: BACKGROUND INFORMATION AND DIRECTIONS ON HOW TO APPLY

Application Deadline: April 22, 2020 (See page 3 for details)

The City Council of Philadelphia is accepting applications to serve on the Commission on Parks and Recreation (“PaRC”). There are nine positions to be filled. If you wish to apply, please read this document carefully. You must complete and submit Part II in order to be considered. (This includes current members of the Commission seeking reappointment.)

If you need another copy of this application, go to www.phlcouncil.com/PaRC. You may also pick up additional copies at the Office of City Council’s Chief Clerk (Room 402 City Hall), and at Philadelphia libraries and recreation centers.

Introduction: In 2008, the voters of Philadelphia approved an amendment to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter to create a new unified Department of Parks and Recreation, along with a new Commission on Parks and Recreation to help guide the department. Every four years, the Mayor appoints nine members of the Commission from a list of nominees submitted by City Council. The current appointees’ terms will expire later this year, and it is now time for Council to develop the next list of nominees.

The Commission is composed of 15 members: the nine members appointed by the Mayor, and six “ex officio” members – the Commissioners of the Departments of Parks and Recreation, Water, Streets, and Public Property; the City Council President; and the Executive Director of the City Planning Commission.

Role and Responsibilities of the Commission on Parks and Recreation: The Charter amendment charges the Commission with the following responsibilities:

“(a) The Commission, after receiving public comment, shall from time to time adopt standards and guidelines relating to City park and recreation land and facilities, including standards and guidelines relating to land use; preservation of green space; watershed management; sustainability; and the conveyance and acquisition of park and recreation land or facilities, including criteria for the assessment and evaluation of proposed conveyances or acquisitions. The Parks and Recreation Commissioner and all other City officials shall give substantial weight to the standards and guidelines adopted by the Commission when taking or considering any official action relating to the City’s park or recreation land or facilities.

(b) The Commission shall assist and advise the Parks and Recreation Commissioner and such private organizations as the Commission may choose, to promote, support and enhance the image of the Fairmount Park System, other City parks, and City recreation facilities; and to expand and diversify the funding and resources for operation and capital expenditures in and for park and recreation facilities.

(c) The Commission shall convene public meetings at least quarterly, and shall provide, at each public meeting, opportunity for public comment concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of the Commission.”

Candidate Selection and Appointment Process: Under the Charter, the Council President begins the process with a public notice that invites applicants to serve on the Commission. The application period must remain open for at least 30 days. Thereafter, City Council must hold a public hearing.

There will be two hearings, to be conducted by Council’s Committee on Parks, Recreation & Cultural Affairs. You are encouraged (but not required) to appear at one of them. They will be held on Friday, May 8, 2020 from 9AM to 1 PM; and Monday, May 11, 2020 from 1 PM to 5 PM, in Room 400 City Hall.

Each applicant who submits an application will receive an e-mail message confirming when and where the public hearing will be held. (Applicants who do not provide an e-mail address will receive a telephone call.) At the hearing, every applicant will have an opportunity to speak. Council must forward between 18-25 nominations to the Mayor within 90 days after the close of the application period. The Mayor will make the final appointments from that list.

This is a volunteer, unpaid position. Under the Charter’s general provision concerning boards and commissions, members of the Commission must be residents of Philadelphia or Pennsylvania counties adjacent to Philadelphia (Bucks, Delaware, and Montgomery).

Please see next page for instructions on how to apply.
